Fathima Begum, the mother of the petitioners, was the granddaughter of Meer Fula Ali, one of the chief lindas of Tipphoo Sultan. The moiety of ^{his} pension of Rs 87.5 per mensem ~~enjoyed by him~~ was, after his death, distributed by Govt among his heirs, one of whom, this Fathima Begum, enjoyed a pension of Rs 20-9-0 till her death on the 25th Dec. 1891. In ~~the~~ petition* presented just before her death, she expressed a wish that the same might be continued among her children — the present petitioners and a daughter. The petitioners also similarly pray for the continuance of two-thirds of it to themselves, apparently wishing to reserve the remaining third for the use of their sister. On

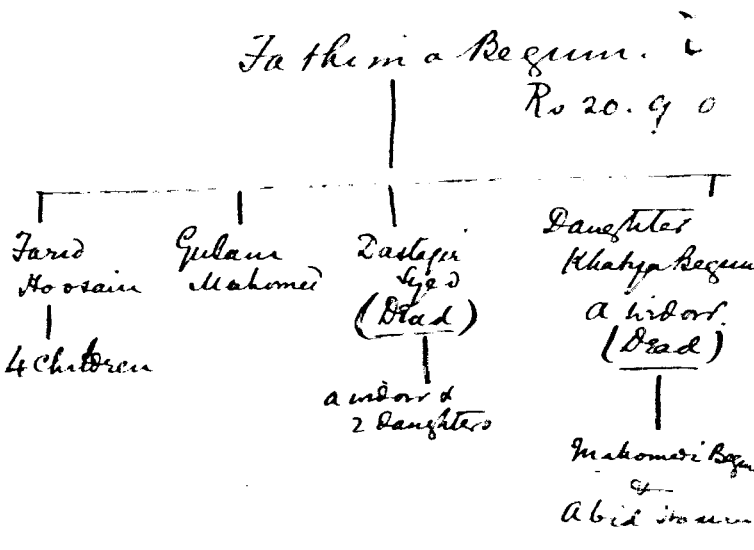

ref. to a reference to the Coll. of North Arcot (through the 1st Asst. to the Resident), it has ~~now~~ been ascertained —

1st That the only heirs
 Fathima

2
 Fathima Begum has left behind her are, besides her husband, these three children and their issue, and the issue of another deceased son. The first son is 50 years old and is the head of a family of 4 souls; the second^d aged 30 has a wife; the deceased son leaves a widow and two ~~very~~ very young daughters, and the daughter (aged 25) is a widow.

2^{dly} That this daughter has landed property in S. West left her by her husband; but that the rest possess no property of any kind, having been absolutely dependant upon the pension of the deceased lady. Her husband, however, seems to be in the receipt of a very small Carnatic pension of Rs 2-11-0.

A moiety of the pension enjoyed by Fathima Begum may be continued to Farid Hussain & other surviving members of the family as follows:—

- (1) Farid Hoosam — Rs 3. 6. 10.
 - (2) Joolam Mahomed Rs 3. 6. 10.
 - (3) The widow & daughters of Dastagir Syed Rs 3. 6. 10.
- Total Rs. 10. 4. 6

Fathima Begum's daughter Khatija Begum is reported to have died. The latter's daughter Mahomed Begum has petitioned Govt (vide Ptn No 1156) for a portion of Fathima Begum's pension, but as Khatija Begum is reported to have landed property in S. Arcot, her daughter does not seem to be entitled to any portion of Fathima Begum's pension — which note (continued).

Agreeably to the above orders, a moiety of the pension namely, Rs 10-4-6 was continued to the family members of the late Fathuma Begum (vide Govt Progs No 27 dated the 14th July/1893) and was divided ^{among} them as stated above.

8-6 Flap A

In this division, the widow and daughters of Dastagir Syed named respectively Rahim Khater, and Khadija Bi and Karim Bi got jointly Rs 3-6-10 per mensem.

In his No 491 dated the 9th March 1904, the Collector North Arcot reports that Khadija Bi died on the 20th January 1904, leaving behind her an only daughter, named Pacha Begum, an orphan and aged 6 years, that Rahimat-Bano [mother of the deceased and joint holder of the pension requests that the deceased's Rahim Khater as per genealogical table Flap B.

deceased's daughter's name may be substituted for that of Khadija and the pension disbursed
as usual.

The order of Govt referred to above does not mention ^{the} names of the pensioners in question, but refers to them as widow and daughters of Dastagir Syed. The gene-logical Table submitted by the Collector in 1892 calls the widow Rahim Khatri, but in the present communication the Collector calls ^{her} ~~of~~ Rahimat Bano.
This may be another name of the same lady or ~~she~~ may have been mis-spelt.
But that she was the pensioner referred to in the Govt order is testified to by the Collector, in his letter.

Submitted for orders.

nd. There seems to be the orphan girl's name as the pension which was sanctioned for the maintenance of the widow & daughters of Dastagir Saigud out of the pension of the latter's mother-in-law. Continue to be paid for the support of the widow, daughter & grand daughter (^{deceased} daughter's daughter) of the

From the above it can be seen that the question of continuing to the pension ^{for the} support of the widow, the surviving daughter & the daughter of the deceased Khadi Bai, has been contemplated and 7

And hence it calls for no further action in the matter.

As regards the instructions which the Comptroller seeks for furnishing the information to the Accountant-General, Madras, ~~with reference~~ in ~~the~~ his letter under reference, a draft communicating the intention of Government with-respect to continuance of the payment of the sum. (Rs 3-6-10) to the surviving members, is submitted for approval.
